Assisted Living Research Institute

Address: PO Box 45829, Seattle, WA 98145

Phone: 855-221-9611

Services: Seniors and people with disabilities often need supportive living options. When the time comes to start considering your options for assisted living, it's easy to become overwhelmed by the sheer number of housing options. Not only are there different categories of assisted living to choose from, there are also a plethora of homes from which to choose. The right choice depends on a number of factors, including support needs, expense, and personal preference.

Once a home is chosen, there's still a significant barrier to overcome: figuring out how to pay for it. There are a number of different options, but it's important to choose the option that will allow for comfortable living now, while also ensuring your resources aren't used up too quickly.

This guide helps those searching for assisted living homes overcome the two main barriers: choosing a home and figuring out how to pay for it. In this guide, you will learn about the different types of assisted living homes, how to choose the right home for you, how to pay for that home, and state-specific resources to assist you in your search.

Crossroads Men's Shelter

Address: 503 Leon Sullivan Way, Charleston, WV 25301

Phone: 304-343-4352

Services: The Union Mission Men's Shelter provides service to the homeless and hurting every hour of the day, year-round. It provides between 150 and 200 meals per day, and it has a maximum lodging capacity of 76. The men who come to the shelter do so knowing their physical needs will be met; the staff and chaplains of the shelter, while meeting these physical needs, also tend to the spiritual needs in a practical way.

Emergency shelter is offered as a refuge to men needing temporary housing. Residents receive three hot meals every day, as well as a hot shower, clean clothes and pajamas, fresh toiletries, and a clean bed. The shelter is open throughout the day, and residents are welcome to access the facility whenever they wish (except during the daily cleaning). If after a short initial period a transient decides to make the shelter his home, he must commit to finding a steady job. Residents are attributed the dignity they deserve as human beings, but they are also kept accountable for the management of their time and money.

FAST (Family Advocacy, Support & Training) from Legal Aid of WV

Address: 115B South Kanawha Street, Beckley, WV 25801

Phone: 304-255-0561

Services: Family Advocacy, Support & Training (FAST) is a Legal Aid of West Virginia program that helps West Virginia children, from birth to age 21, who have a mental health, co-occurring or co-existing diagnosis, and who are struggling or experiencing discrimination in school or early learning programs because of these challenges.

Some of the ways FAST can help include:

- Working with families and school officials to develop individual education plans (IEPs).
- Facilitating discussions between schools and families about how to manage a child's problem behaviors in a way that is fair and designed to keep the child in public school.
- Helping resolve legal concerns that directly impact a child's academic success, including problems with accessing appropriate education services, as well as issues of custody and adoption, and acquisition of benefits, transportation and housing.

The 24/7 Dad® Philosophy

24/7 Dad® is based on a philosophy that supports the growth and development of fathers and children as caring, compassionate people who treat themselves, others, and the environment with respect and dignity. This philosophical basis of caring and compassion forms the underlying structure that constitutes the values that are taught in the 24/7 Dad® programs. Each 24/7 Dad® Program consists of 12 group based sessions that build on each other.

The 24/7 Dad® is delivered in 12, two-hour sessions:

- Family History
- What it Means to Be a Man
- Showing and Handling Feelings
- Men's Health
- Communication
- The Father's Role
- Discipline

- Children’s Growth
 - Getting Involved
 - Working with Mom & Co-Parenting
 - Dads and Work
 - My 24/7 Dad® Checklist

FMRS

Address: 209 West Maple Avenue, Fayetteville WV 25840

Phone: 304-574-2100

Services:

- Resiliency for Appalachia- Youth Overcoming Trauma – The RAPP project is funded by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration and is a category III network member of the National Child Traumatic Stress Network. The primary goal of the RAPP project is to bring evidence-based, trauma-informed treatment to the children of Southern West Virginia. RAPP is a collaboration between FMRS Health Systems, Inc.; Southern Highlands Community Mental Health Center; and Seneca Health Services, Inc. Therapists across the three comprehensive agencies are trained in evidence-based treatment models to better serve our region. RAPP is working to change how all child serving agencies approach children and families by facilitating trauma informed care training throughout the region.
- Parent-Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT) – PCIT is a type of family therapy used to help improve family relations. It is an evidenced-based treatment model with highly specified, step-by-step, live-coached sessions with both the parent/caregiver and the child. It is targeted towards families with children ages 3-7, but can be modified for children as old as 10. The goals of treatment are improvement in the quality of the parent-child relationship, a decrease in child disruptive behavior problems with an increase in prosocial behaviors, an increase in parenting skills including positive discipline, and a decrease in parenting stress.
- Trauma Focused Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT) – TF-CBT is a type of therapy used to help children and adolescents who have suffered a traumatic life experience. It is an evidence-based treatment model targeted to treat children and adolescents ages 3-21. TF-CBT has the strongest research evidence of any treatment model for traumatized children. Goals of treatment include a decrease in child behavior problems related to post traumatic stress such as depression, anxiety and anger, while increasing the youth and family’s ability to cope with stress.
- Adolescent Substance Abuse Services – Outpatient treatment is a good option for those whose substance use is just beginning or for those youth returning home from more intensive treatment. This allows the young person to remain at home, while receiving individual and supportive group sessions; teaching healthy coping strategies to deal with the pressures of young adulthood. Adolescents (14 years and older) may seek treatment for substance use disorders without parental permission.

- Children’s Mobile Crisis Response – The FMRS Children’s Mobile Crisis Response team helps youth who are experiencing emotional or behavioral crisis by interrupting the immediate crisis and assisting youth and their families in becoming safe and supported. Crisis specialists and a parent support specialist provide support and teach skills necessary to return youth and families to routine functioning; maintaining children in their home or current living situation, school and community whenever possible.
- Children’s Wraparound Services – “Wraparound” is a process that is designed to help groups of people involved in a family’s life, work together to support the family and their child who is returning from, or at risk of being sent to, an out-of-home placement in order to receive services. “Wraparound” is based on the belief that youth make progress when family and community are involved in their care and treatment. The process is used to support families by bringing a group of people together as a team for planning and delivering supportive services that build on family strengths, and address critical unmet needs to accomplish the outcome of keeping families together.
- School-based Mental Health – The Expanded School Mental Health program is a collaborative effort between FMRS Health Systems, Inc. and Raleigh County Schools, designed to address the emotional and behavioral difficulties that negatively impact school performance, grade point average, and the development of healthy relationships with other students and school authority figures; and optimize overall student health and well-being. The program is housed within Beckley Elementary and Stratton Elementary schools and is designed to operate throughout the regular school year.
- Regional Youth Services – The Resources for Adolescent and Family Transformation (RAFT) Center, is the Regional Youth Service Center for Region 6. The center is a collaboration between FMRS Health Systems, Seneca Mental Health, and Southern Highlands Community Mental Health. The goal of coordinating an array of outpatient services for youth with co-occurring substance use and mental health conditions. The mission of the Regional Youth Service Center is to decrease the stigma associated with “getting help.” The RAFT Center is a welcoming environment where youth and families can find support and are able to seek services in a more relaxed setting.
- Parent Peer Support – FMRS provides a Parent Peer Support Specialist to help children and families navigate services and ensure they receive the most appropriate level of care. Parent peer support is typically used when a family has multiple needs due to caring for a child with severe behavioral or developmental problems. The Parent Peer Support Specialist can assist the child and their family in navigating complex systems by providing advocacy and linkage/referral to community resources. The Parent Peer Support Specialist facilitates parent support groups and meets one on one with families throughout the region.
- Life Space Crisis Intervention (LSCI) – LSCI is an advanced, interactive therapeutic strategy for turning crisis situations into learning opportunities for children and youth with chronic patterns of self-defeating behaviors. LSCI views problems or stressful incidents as opportunities for learning, growth, insight, and change. This non-physical intervention program uses a multi-theoretical approach to behavior management and problem solving. LSCI provides staff a roadmap through conflict to desired outcomes using crisis as an opportunity to teach and create positive relationships with youth.

Gabriel Project

Address: 401 West Maple Avenue, Fayetteville, WV 25840

Phone: 304-574-0446

Services: The Gabriel Project of West Virginia benefits families without adequate financial resources to meet the tangible needs of a new baby. We provide necessary baby items, such as new cribs, new car seats, diapers, formula, clothing, and hygiene products at no or low cost to our clients.

The Gabriel Project also recognizes that the needs of our clients go beyond tangible items. We support families in despair with understanding, compassionate listening and, if requested, prayer. We share child rearing experiences, offer information materials and answer general questions about baby care to improve parenting skills. And we make referrals to other sources of assistance that are beyond our mission.

We serve single mothers, homeless women, families without jobs or with low income jobs, women and children who are victims of domestic violence, and countless others.

Assistance provided by the Gabriel Project enhances the abilities of families to parent and nurture their children and to improve their quality of life. Gabriel Project assistance is primarily provided by volunteers called “Gabriel Angels”, working from community client services sites in churches and other facilities.

The Gabriel Project is not a crisis pregnancy program. We do not offer pregnancy testing, pregnancy termination, adoption services, counseling or medical care. We also do not offer housing, utility assistance or direct financial payments to clients

KVC In-Home Therapy

Address: 3872 Robert C. Byrd Drive, Beckley WV 25801

Phone: 304-929-4130

Services: KVC provides two types of in-home services: Medically-Necessary Services and Socially-Necessary Services. There is a great deal of research showing the positive impact of conducting therapy in the home as opposed to an office setting.

- Medically-Necessary Services – services to children and adults who have Medicaid and meet APS Healthcare and Medicaid criteria for medical necessity. We offer both individual and family therapy. Contact your local KVC office to check therapist availability in your area!
- Socially-Necessary Services – provides in-home Socially Necessary (ASO) Services through partnerships with the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources (DHHR). The referrals for these services are generated through DHHR only, and clients of Child Protective Services or Youth Services are eligible to receive these services. This program is funded in part under an Agreement with the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources.

Safe at Home

Address: 350 Capitol Street, Charleston, WV 25301

Phone: 304-356-0628

Services: The goals of Safe at Home West Virginia are to:

- Ensure youth remain in their own communities whenever safely possible.
- Reduce reliance on foster care/congregate care and prevent re-entries.
- Reduce the number of children in higher cost placements out-of-state.
- Step down youth in congregate care and/or reunify them with their families and home communities.

Safe at Home West Virginia is initially focusing on youth 12-17 years old in congregate care both in and out of state. We believe that if targeted and comprehensive community services are provided to wrap around youth and their families, we can either reunify them or keep them out of care in the first place, and most importantly, keep youth in their communities.

Safe at Home West Virginia includes:

- Trauma-informed assessments for youth and their families to identify their needs.
- Trauma-informed wraparound services.
- Evidence-based services and supports.
- Opportunities to provide services early and often, aligned with the targeted needs of youth and their families.

Youth considered for Safe at Home West Virginia wraparound services must:

- Have an open case;
- Be 12 to 17 years old; and
- Be at risk for out-of-home placement.

WIC Program

Address: 1822 East Main Street, Oak Hill, WV 25901

Phone: 304-465-5314

Hours of Operation: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday 8am-12pm, 1pm-6pm; Friday Closed, Saturday Closed, Sunday Closed

Services: The Fayette County WIC program welcomes you to call them for an appointment to assist you and your family. They have the knowledge and healthy foods to nourish your family.

Fayette County staff offer services for pregnant women, infants and children up to the age of five years. In addition to their monthly food package, in the summer they offer farmer's market coupons. They have breastfeeding classes and one-on-one nutritional consultations to help you make healthy food choices and give you information to establish healthy lifestyle habits.

Their goal is to help you have the best outcome for your pregnancy and to grow a healthy family. Pregnancy, babies, and children don't come with an instruction manual and that is where WIC can make a difference. For assistance in Fayette County, please give them a call at their office at 304-465-5314 or call 1-888-454-3928, and they will give you information to pre-qualify you and make an appointment.

United Way of Southern West Virginia

Address: 110 Croft Street, PO Box 5456, Beckley, WV 25801

Phone: 304-253-2111

Fax: 304-253-2144

Hours of Operation: Monday-Friday 8am-4pm

Services:

- WV 211 – gives information about organizations and programs that may help you, but 2-1-1 does not provide direct assistance. Rather, calls during business hours will be connected to the local Information and Referral Center where friendly, trained staff will assess your needs. During other hours, call center operators will search a database of available services.
- Equal Footing Shoe Fund – providing children in Fayette, Raleigh, Nicholas, Wyoming, McDowell, Mercer and Summers counties who are in need of shoes with new, athletic style shoes. Children ages 1-18 who are residents of the 7 county service region.
- Anti-Hunger – partners with the West Virginia Department of Education Office of Child Nutrition to bring awareness to the issue of child hunger over the summer months and to support a thriving summer feeding program in Southern West Virginia. They hosted information sessions about sponsoring a Summer Feeding Site, connected individual volunteers to sites needing assistance, hosted trainings for Summer Feeding Site sponsors, and provided seed money for those wishing to start up a new summer feeding site.
- Literacy – partners with Mabscott and Cranberry-Prosperity Elementary Schools to provide volunteer readers on a monthly basis which helps to promote increased positivity towards reading and writing, as well as providing students with a positive adult role model. Additionally, each student in grades 2-5 at these schools receives their very own copy of the book that we read and discuss with them

- Healthy Babies – Schools, hospitals, churches or other community organizations can request a Healthy Babies Presentation from the United Way to learn about the issues many children in our area are facing as they are exposed to alcohol or drugs while developing in the womb, or physical abuse once they are born. These presentations are poignant and show how the need to support children and families in Southern West Virginia is stronger than ever. Presentations include information on: Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome, and Shaken Baby.

WIC Program

Address: 1822 East Main Street, Oak Hill, WV 25901

Phone: 304-465-5314

Hours of Operation: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday 8am-12pm, 1pm-6pm; Friday Closed, Saturday Closed, Sunday Closed

Services: The Fayette County WIC program welcomes you to call them for an appointment to assist you and your family. They have the knowledge and healthy foods to nourish your family.

Fayette County staff offer services for pregnant women, infants and children up to the age of five years. In addition to their monthly food package, in the summer they offer farmer's market coupons. They have breastfeeding classes and one-on-one nutritional consultations to help you make healthy food choices and give you information to establish healthy lifestyle habits.

Their goal is to help you have the best outcome for your pregnancy and to grow a healthy family. Pregnancy, babies, and children don't come with an instruction manual and that is where WIC can make a difference. For assistance in Fayette County, please give them a call at their office at 304-465-5314 or call 1-888-454-3928, and they will give you information to pre-qualify you and make an appointment.

Hours of Operation: Monday-Friday 8am-4pm

Services:

WV 211 – gives information about organizations and programs that may help you, but 2-1-1 does not provide direct assistance. Rather, calls during business hours will be connected to the local Information and Referral Center where friendly, trained staff will assess your needs. During other hours, call center operators will search a database of available services.

Equal Footing Shoe Fund – providing children in Fayette, Raleigh, Nicholas, Wyoming, McDowell, Mercer and Summers counties who are in need of shoes with new, athletic style shoes. Children ages 1-18 who are residents of the 7 county service region.

Anti-Hunger – partners with the West Virginia Department of Education Office of Child Nutrition to bring awareness to the issue of child hunger over the summer months and to support a thriving summer feeding program in Southern West Virginia. They hosted information sessions about sponsoring a Summer Feeding Site, connected individual volunteers to sites needing assistance, hosted trainings for Summer Feeding Site sponsors, and provided seed money for those wishing to start up a new summer feeding site.

Literacy – partners with Mabscott and Cranberry-Prosperity Elementary Schools to provide volunteer readers on a monthly basis which helps to promote increased positivity towards reading and writing, as well as providing students with a positive adult role model. Additionally, each student in grades 2-5 at these schools receives their very own copy of the book that we read and discuss with them

Healthy Babies – Schools, hospitals, churches or other community organizations can request a Healthy Babies Presentation from the United Way to learn about the issues many children in our area are facing as they are exposed to alcohol or drugs while developing in the womb, or physical abuse once they are born. These presentations are poignant and show how the need to support children and families in Southern West Virginia is stronger than ever. Presentations include information on: Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome, and Shaken Baby.

Foster Care Resources

How to Support College Students Who Experienced Foster Care During School Breaks

Youth who experience foster care face a number of barriers getting to college \(PDF, 528 KB\), External link and once they've arrived on campus, the challenges don't end. While playing educational catch-up, access to resources and mentors and financial constraints are common concerns. Gaps in the school year when most students depart campus can also leave them vulnerable. Homelessness is not rare for youth who age out of the system. And while some alumni of foster care may be able to return to their foster families during breaks, many others may be left to figure out what to do without stable housing.

Burlington United Methodist Family Services, Inc.

Address: 4700 Robert C Byrd Drive, Beckley, WV 25801

Phone: 304-252-8508

Services: Burlington entered the foster care ministry in 1985. Since that time, it has become one of the agency's largest program. Our program provides services to children from birth to 18 years of age as well as youth up to 20 years of age, if they remain in a school setting. They may have suffered from abuse and neglect; have emotional or physical challenges or other circumstances which make them unable to live with their family of origin. Children served are of all races and religion. Children are referred to the program primarily by the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources as well as other social service agencies. Foster families are needed for the program. The agency continuously recruits families.

Services we provide for the child: Immediate placement in safe family environment upon referral; assignment of a social worker who will coordinate treatment and services; access to emergency service on a 24-hr. basis; coordination of birth family contact (if recommended); and other services as needed.

Services we provide for Foster Parents: Individualized orientation; initial and ongoing training; supportive services from a treatment coordinator; monthly financial assistance to defray costs; access to respite care services if needed; and other services as needed.

Locations: Beckley, Grafton, Fairmont, Keyser and Martinsburg.

KVC

Address: 3872 Robert C. Byrd Drive, Beckley WV 25801

Phone: 304-929-4130

Services: Foster care is a safe place that gives a child and his or her birth family an opportunity to resolve conflicts or disruptions and learn healthy skills, so the child can safely return home. Many birth families need help in learning effective parenting skills, overcoming substance use or learning healthy ways to cope from trauma they themselves have experienced.

KVC foster care services allow you to make a positive difference. By becoming a foster parent, you are opening your door to a child in need and providing a dependable, nurturing environment. We understand this can be a challenging task, so we go to great lengths to provide families with resources and training necessary to successfully integrate the child into a new home.

This program is funded in part under an agreement with the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources.

Services:

- New River Safe Housing– A program which provides rehabilitation to dilapidated and energy inefficient homes for low income families in economically devastated rural coalfield communities, primarily in the Fayette County part of the Central Appalachian Empowerment Zone. The work ranges from substantial rehabs to weatherization, roofing, windows, doors, and insulation. It helps establish leadership and community development.
- New Page Housing– With Youthbuild Communities from colleges, faith-based work camps, and global volunteers, SALS is constructing a new housing development for low income families in the former coal camp community of Page, West Virginia.
- Coalfield Housing– A program similar to New River Safe Housing that is primarily in the Fayette Country part of Upper Kanawha Valley Enterprise Community. It also includes work on abandoned homes obtained with tax credits through the West Virginia Neighborhood Investment Program and donations through the HUD Dollar Housing Program.

- HOME Program– As a HOME program organization, SALS constructs homes and qualifies families for Financing through the West Virginia Housing Development Fund. Certified counselors assist families in preparing and processing their applications.
- Housing Emergency Loan Program (HELP)-SALS assists income eligible families to become eligible for special loans through the West Virginia Housing Development Fund.
- Community Housing Development Organization (CHDO)-As a certified CHDO, SALS is eligible to obtain funds through the West Virginia Housing Development Fund for special projects that assist the housing programs.
- USDA-RD Rural Housing Service and SALS– SALS and USDA have a long and productive relationship with Housing Preservation Grant, Self-Help, and 502/504 Housing programs. USDA has an impressive record for building strong relationships with lenders, home builders, community development organizations, non-profits, and housing finance authorities to provide better housing for very-low, low, and moderate-income individuals in rural areas.

Services:

- PREVENTION WITHOUT BORDERS– is the lead substance abuse prevention program throughout southeastern West Virginia – including Fayette, Greenbrier, McDowell, Mercer, Monroe, Nicholas, Pocahontas, Raleigh, Summers, Webster, and Wyoming counties. In a unique, innovative approach, Community Connections utilizes a network of coordinators to implement substance abuse prevention programs, practices, and services. In general, we support County Coalitions, develop and support SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions) Chapters, teach evidence-based programs, host community events, and mobilize the community to spark concern over the problem while instilling hope for the future.

- SADD – Students Against Destructive Decisions, is a youth-led, youth-empowered organization that provides students with a voice to speak out about the problems they see in their schools and communities. From underage drinking to bullying, SADD covers it all! SADD envisions a world in which young people make positive decisions that advance their health and safety. Governor’s Initiative on Substance Abuse

Phone: WV Bureau for Behavioral Health and Health Facilities at 304-558-0627

Services: Per Executive Order 5-11, the Governor’s Substance Abuse Task Forces are assembled by the Bureau for Behavioral Health and Health Facilities within the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources to combat the growing problem of substance abuse and addiction throughout West Virginia.

The Regional Substance Abuse Task Forces are open to the public and are intended to include West Virginia citizens from all walks of life: parents, teachers, service providers, law enforcement, elected officials, and anyone else interested in joining together to combat the problem. Regional Task Forces have been charged with moving from talking about the problem to identifying priorities and developing strategies to address the problem of substance abuse in West Virginia.

- Lifeline Connection – is small group ministry, offering a faith-based alternative to court-ordered secular groups. Returning the concepts of AA back to its Christian origins, gives the faith-based community a proven model of 12 steps! One of the goals of Lifeline is to offer clients a faith-based alternative to the groups mandated by the new concept of drug court. Also, offering help to those who are not able to go to residential rehab, or ready to go, or even needing to go.
- Insight Ministry – its emphasis on developing Christian character it is a powerful group for those who want to be sure to prevent life-controlling problems from developing in their lives, as well as for those who need to overcome a current problem. We highly recommend Insight as the entry group for small groups.
- Concerned Persons – is for families of recovering addicts, because we need each other. It is designed for the many people who have a current or past relationship with a person who has a life-controlling problem.
- Stepping into Freedom – is a Christ-centered twelve-step program suggested for use in support groups, recovery groups and home groups. It offers help for anyone struggling with a life-controlling problem like drug addiction, alcoholism, gambling or workaholic.
- Free to Grow – is designed to help people overcome disappointments and setbacks in their lives. The purpose of this group study is to help people overcome disappointments and setbacks that have arrested or are presently hindering their emotional and spiritual development.
- Committed Couples – is designed to help couples in their relationship with each other and God. It is for married couples or engaged-to-be-married couples who are committed to God's plan for marriage and family relationship.

Southern Coalfields Tobacco Prevention Network

Address: 215 S Walker Street Princeton, WV 24740

Phone: 304-913-4956

Email: southerncoalfields@strongcommunities.org

Services: The Southern Coalfields Tobacco Prevention Network is a network of six county coalitions in rural West Virginia. The network provides individual county coalitions with policy guidance and presents a unified effort for tobacco control and prevention in the region. The network focuses on promoting tobacco-free policies, reducing tobacco use among dual tobacco users (users of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco), and preventing initiation of tobacco use among elementary school students. The network also provides outreach to special populations in the region that are disproportionately affected by tobacco use, such as coal miners and pregnant women who smoke. A recent anti-smokeless tobacco program, Spit it Out, was successful in providing tobacco cessation services to hundreds of community members and facilitating the adoption of tobacco-free policies in five workplaces.

Services: Teen Court is designed to provide a community based alternative to the formal court process. It represents a more positive alternative to the juvenile justice system, and focuses on youth development and accountability. Juvenile offenders learn to take responsibility for their actions. The program represents a way for juveniles to actively participate in an informal court process and learn from their mistakes. Juvenile cases addressed by this court are handled on a timely basis and free up time and funds for the Circuit Court system to handle more serious offenses.

In Teen Court, the Judge introduces the juvenile offender to the jurors who are informed of his/her charges. After hearing the evidence presented by a youth prosecutor and defense attorney, the jury considers the appropriate sentence

The clerks, bailiffs, prosecuting and defense attorneys, and all jurors, are all Fayette County youth volunteers. They receive instruction and guidance from local attorneys.

FMRS

Address: 209 West Maple Avenue, Fayetteville WV 25840

Phone: 304-574-2100

Services:

- MOTHER – The MOTHER Program is an intensive residential treatment program geared toward women aged 18 and over who suffer from an identified substance use disorder(s) and/or a mental health disorder. The typical client may suffer from family stress, financial burdens, employment issues, legal issues, and health issues as a result of her substance use disorder. The length of stay is determined on an individual basis. Treatment interventions include twice-daily participation in group therapy, individual sessions with a therapist, frequent and random drug screens, and recovery-based activities, including NA/AA meetings. This program also provides access to medical and psychiatric services as needed.
- LEARN – The LEARN Program is a residential treatment program for men ages 18 and older who are experiencing difficulties in several areas of their life due to substance use. The length of stay is individually determined. Generally, this option is reserved for men who have a weak support system in place to assist in their recovery planning. They may not have friends and family who do not use or who will choose to be in their life at the present time. They are likely experiencing difficulty with finances, work, family, and perhaps health. They may have tried other forms of treatment or tried to quit on their own with little success. The program provides a structured environment, individual and group counseling services daily, and assistance with building a substance-free lifestyle. The staff is highly qualified, and the program includes a complete assessment, detox if needed, and treatment for any other physical or mental health disorders. When a wait list is in place, preference is given to men who are injecting drugs of abuse.
- Turning Pointe – Turning Pointe is an intensive residential treatment program tailored to address the needs of pregnant and post-partum women (up to 12 months) with identified substance use disorders and/or co-occurring mental health diagnoses. The typical client may suffer from family stress, financial burdens, employment issues, legal issues, and health issues as a result of her substance use disorder. The length of stay is determined on an individual basis. Treatment interventions include twice-daily participation in group therapy, individual sessions with a therapist, frequent and random drug screens, and recovery-based activities, including NA/AA meetings. Parenting skills are also developed at Turning Pointe and clients are linked with appropriate community resources to encourage ongoing growth following completion of treatment. This program also provides access to medical and psychiatric services as needed.

- Adolescent Substance Abuse Services – Outpatient treatment is a good option for those whose substance use is just beginning or for those youth returning home from more intensive treatment. This allows the young person to remain at home, while receiving individual and supportive group sessions; teaching healthy coping strategies to deal with the pressures of young adulthood. Adolescents (14 years and older) may seek treatment for substance use disorders without parental permission.
- Intensive Outpatient – Intensive outpatient treatment is an excellent option for those whose substance use is beginning to interfere with some aspects of their life, such as their job, family or financial situation, but who feel they live in a supportive environment. This allows you to remain at home yet get a more intense treatment experience than just attending individual therapy or support groups. The length of stay is determined on an individual basis and is available to men, women, and pregnant women who are 18 years of age and older. This program also provides access to medical and psychiatric services as needed. To obtain more information or to make a referral please use our online referral submission and one of our case managers will contact you on the next business day or call 304-256-7100.
- Outpatient – Outpatient services (ASAM Level of Care 1) are available to individuals who are able to access appropriate supports in their community and may be working or have family obligations. Therapy services are provided at a level which is appropriate for the individual, but typically are weekly and include a combination of group and individual therapy sessions. Clients who have been using substances such as opiates, benzodiazepines, and/or alcohol may be offered participation in a withdrawal management program before outpatient services are started.
- DUI Safety and Treatment – FMRS provides the WV DUI Safety and Treatment Program through an agreement with the State of WV. Classes are offered in Fayette County on Thursday afternoons. Each class is provided to ensure participants meet the requirements of the State of WV. If the DUI occurred in another state, we work to meet that state’s particular requirements. Please call 304-256-7100 for information about fees, dates for upcoming classes and other information that may help in regaining a valid driver’s license.
- Medicated Assisted Treatment (MAT) – Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) Services include the use of medications, such as Suboxone, Vivitrol, or Naltrexone in addition to counseling to treat severe opioid use problems. MAT may be offered as a treatment option within any of the FMRS substance use treatment programs. MAT would include a minimum of weekly group counseling; monthly individual counseling and all participants are seen by the physician weekly. Regular urine drug screens are completed through an on-site laboratory. An initial evaluation will determine if MAT is an appropriate option for each referral.

Services: Williamson Comprehensive Treatment Center, a leader in medication-assisted treatment for individuals struggling with an opioid addiction, offers treatment options for women and men who are ages 18 and older. Providing full-circle care that includes a blend of therapies and the use of safe and effective medications, Williamson Comprehensive Treatment Center is prepared to treat the entire problem, not just a piece of it.

Williamson Comprehensive Treatment Center is happy to offer patients a warm and protected environment run by our staff of knowledgeable counselors, physicians, and nurses. Patients who are grappling with an addiction to opioids, such as heroin, morphine, or prescription painkillers will receive top-notch care from our dedicated and sympathetic staff members who are devoted to monitoring a patient's progress. For example, our staff monitors the medication that each patient is taking, as well as the administration of that medication. At Williamson Comprehensive Treatment Center, we provide a variety of different medications to help treat an opioid addiction, such as:

- Suboxone
- Subutex

- Vivitrol
- Methadone

Both the type of medication and the dosage will be determined based on a patient's unique needs, as well as the state of his or her health. Certain dosages will be recommended, however, there may be a fluctuation in dosages throughout the process if a patient's needs call for it. All dosages, medication recommendations, and changes will be decided by one of our physicians.

Jobs & Hope West Virginia

Phone: 1-833-784-1385

Services: Jobs & Hope WV is a beginning-to-end program that allows an individual to receive free addiction treatment while at the same time receiving free career technical education. All West Virginians are welcome to receive free additional training and certification whether you have a drug issue or not.

The process includes Treatment – Training – Workforce & Ongoing Support

1. Individual receiving treatment for substance use disorder is determined to be ready for career training.
2. Transition agent is assigned to each participant to conduct a needs assessment and build a personalized plan for each participant outlining education and career opportunities.
3. If applicable, participant completes a 30-day job readiness and basic life skills training resulting in basic certifications such as food handlers card, safety/customer service and entry level hospitality. Transition agent will also assist participants wishing to earn their High School Equivalency.

4. Participants may pursue advanced career certifications at local adult and career training centers, Community & Technical Colleges, or through programs offered by the West Virginia National Guard and Department of Transportation.
5. WorkForce West Virginia and Division of Rehabilitation Services will collaborate to assist participant with job identification and placement.
6. If applicable, participant receives a one-time expungement for non-violent misdemeanor offense and signs a contract as a condition of expungement to agree to regular/random drug testing.
7. Participant enters the workforce and receives ongoing support from transition agent and/or the West Virginia Department of Health & Human Resources to ensure success.

Mercer County Fellowship Home

Address: 421 Scott Street, Bluefield WV 24701

Phone: 304-327-9876

Services: The Mercer County Fellowship Home (MCFH) is a non-profit legal entity chartered by the State Of West Virginia. Our purpose is to provide housing and recovery services to adult males recovering from substance abuse. MCFH's program allows residents to stay 3 months to 18 months.

We are not a rescue mission or homeless shelter. Prospective residents must fill out an application and be interviewed to ensure that prospective resident's primary purpose is the continuation of their recovery from substance abuse. We provide residents a safe and healthy place to live. We also assist residents using education, counseling and lifestyle changes to learn and accept responsibilities of sober living.

We endeavor to provide the necessities of life, such as access to health care and clothing for residents in need.

West Virginia Low Income Energy Assistance Program (WV LIEAP)

Phone: 304-558-0628

Services: The West Virginia Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) assists eligible households with the cost of home heating through direct cash payments or payments to utility companies on their behalf. A crisis component is available for households without resources facing the loss of a heating source. Eligibility for both program components is based on a combination of factors, including income, type of heating payment, and total heating costs.

The Division of Family Assistance (DFA) operates LIEAP in each of the DHHR field offices for a short time each winter, usually beginning with a mail-out to targeted households. In addition, DFA contracts with the Community Action network and with regional Agency on Aging offices to perform outreach and accept LIEAP applications at their local sites.

Fayette County Teen Court

“Giving First Time Offenders A Second Chance”

Apply to become a Teen Court Volunteer online here

Or contact Diane Callison at 304-574-4338 or fayettefrn@gmail.com

The Fayette County Family Resource Network along with the Fayette Prevention Coalition, Fayette County Commission, Fayette County Circuit Court, Fayette County Youth Reporting Center, and numerous other local organizations, businesses and individuals have come together to establish the Fayette County Teen Court.

Teen Court is designed to provide a community based alternative to the formal court process. It represents a more positive alternative to the juvenile justice system, and focuses on youth development and accountability. Juvenile offenders learn to take responsibility for their actions. The program represents a way for juveniles to actively participate in an informal court process and learn from their mistakes. Juvenile cases addressed by this court are handled on a timely basis and free up time and funds for the Circuit Court system to handle more serious offenses.

How does a Teen Court work?

Teen Court is based on the philosophy that a youthful law violator does not continue to be an offender when a peer jury decides punishment. The program focuses on youth accountability and development and provides a way for youthful offenders to keep their records clean (as long as no further charges are filed).

Juvenile offender participation in this program is entirely voluntary and requires a plea of nolo contendere. The program is available to juvenile misdemeanor offenders. The juvenile offenders are from grades 7th through 12th and must have parental or guardian consent. A $25 fee is paid by each juvenile offender. He/she must also agree to serve as a juror in the future.

In Teen Court, the Judge introduces the juvenile offender to the jurors who are informed of his/her charges. After hearing the evidence presented by a youth prosecutor and defense attorney, the jury considers the appropriate sentence

The clerks, bailiffs, prosecuting and defense attorneys, and all jurors, are all Fayette County youth volunteers. They receive instruction and guidance from local attorneys.

Eligible Offenses for Teen Court include:

- Minor traffic violations
- Misdemeanors such as public intoxication, shoplifting, criminal damage to property under $300, vandalism, disorderly conduct
- Minors in possession of alcohol or simple possession of marijuana
- Simple assaults
- Others as identified

Teen Court sentences are designed to fit the offense and involve restitution, community service, and prevention education. A typical sentence could be any of the following:

- Teen Court Basic Training
- Apology (written, oral, or both)
- Community Services
- Research Paper
- Prevention or education program
- Restitution
- Other

The juvenile offender may accept the sentence assessed by the teen jury, or reject the sentence and elect to go before the Circuit Court through the traditional juvenile justice system.

What are the benefits of Teen Court?

To the Juvenile Offender:

- Interruption of a potential pattern of inappropriate behavior
- Improvement of self-esteem resulting from successful completion of the program
- Accountability. An opportunity for a young person to avoid a criminal record

To the Community:

- Service to the community that benefits the entire community
- Dramatic reduction in the number of repeat offenders
- Reduction of the case load in the juvenile justice system

To the Schools:

- Judgment of a teen by their “peers” which in many cases has more powerful impact than adult discipline
- A positive alternate for students who have stepped “off track” for the first time

To the Student Volunteers:

- Involvement in redirecting peers
- Improvement of public speaking and advocacy skills
- A better understanding of the judicial system through hands-on participation
- Reinforcement of good citizenship

Fayette Prevention Coalition

The Fayette Prevention Coalition is an opportunity for individuals, organizations and agencies to come together to work on the issues created in Fayette County surrounding the drug epidemic.

In 2019, the coalition worked hard to put together a drug awareness toolkit. We want to make sure that everyone who would like access to this resource, has it. We also have printed copies if you would like to have one, please email Carri Strunk, Coalition Coordinator at carri.strunk@nrhawv.org

The digital copy of the toolkit can be found here
